

TRAINER LEVEL MEET VERIFICATION FORM
YMCA OF THE USA
SWIM OFFICIALS PROGRAM

CANDIDATE'S NAME (PRINT) _____

NOTE TO MEET REFEREE: In addition to other prerequisites, in order to be eligible to take the YMCA Trainer Level Swim Officials course, the candidate must work ten (10) meets performing officiating assignments after obtaining their YMCA swim official certification. Five of these meets must be within one (1) year of the Trainer Level course they are planning on taking. Eligible meets include YMCA, USA, high school and collegiate. If a meet consists of sessions, e.g., Session 1 & 2, Session A & B, Preliminaries & Finals, each such individual session counts as one (1) meet. In order for the candidate to be a knowledgeable and effective trainer, officiating assignments must include Referee, Starter, Stroke Judge and Turn Judge.

This form has been developed to verify this particular prerequisite for the Trainer Level course. As meet referee, please sign this form attesting to the candidates satisfactory performance of assigned duty. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

NOTE TO CANDIDATE: If you are the meet referee, you may have this form signed by another meet official or your local YMCA Executive Director. Completed form must be presented to the Program School faculty member(s) conducting the Trainer Level course you are taking.
